

Prepared Resilience Initiative Foundation

Partnership & Sponsorship Opportunities Guide

Together, we make preparedness possible. The Prepared Resilience Initiative Foundation partners with organizations, businesses, and community leaders to strengthen safety, preparedness, and resilience in communities that need support the most.

Why Partnerships Matter

- Expand access to preparedness education and safety training
- Deliver life-saving resources to underserved communities
- Strengthen community response and recovery efforts
- Promote shared responsibility for community safety

Partnership Opportunities

- Corporate Sponsors
- Community and Faith-Based Organizations
- Schools and Youth Programs
- Government and Public Safety Agencies
- Healthcare and Senior Service Providers

Ways Partners Can Support

- Fund community preparedness programs
- Sponsor emergency preparedness kits and safety equipment
- Host preparedness training events
- Provide volunteers or technical expertise
- Support outreach and education initiatives

What Partners Receive

- Recognition as a community safety leader
- Logo placement on program materials and website

- Opportunities for public acknowledgment
- Participation in community events
- Impact reports demonstrating community benefit

How to Become a Partner

- Submit a partnership inquiry
- Discuss partnership goals and community needs
- Develop a customized partnership plan
- Launch programs that create measurable community impact

Preparedness should not be a privilege. Through strong partnerships, we can ensure that every community has the knowledge, tools, and support needed to stay safe before emergencies happen.
